Compass Camp (ages 7-13)* -July 13-17

This camp has a wide range of ages that are ideal for families or friends who want to attend the same week but are different ages. The theme of this camp is to highlight discipleship through God's Word as the compass for our lives. We will offer a day camp option for families that would like to pick up and drop off their child each day (see details below)

Overnight Camp Pricing $400

Day Camp Option $300

*Day Camp Option:

Available for some of our camps. Campers can choose to come just for the day. The bulk of the programming takes place between 9am-4pm. Those coming for just the day can be dropped off daily between 7:30-9 & can stay until 8pm (except for the last day @ 4pm). All three meals are available per day. Parents can coordinate with camp for earlier pick up times throughout the week. The longer days allow for more fun programming and to experience more of camp. A rest period is scheduled for after the lunch session.

Wilderness Boys (ages 10-13) - July 6-10

Wilderness Girls (ages 10-13) - July 13-17

8 children (boys and girls separate weeks) will spend the week in the camp woods; sleeping on cots in a primitive cabin & even spend one night tent camping. All the activities are designed to challenge the children to grow in their relationship with their Savior, Jesus Christ! They get to do many of the same activities (like swimming) but also learn wilderness skills such as compass orienteering, learning how to tie knots, fire-building, and some special activities like night zipping!!

Wilderness Camp Pricing $350

SALT Program (ages 14-15) — *various weeks***

Campers may apply to be part of the Service and Leadership Training program. Those who are chosen to participate are scheduled to volunteer various weeks of camp & assist with younger camper weeks (helping with program and kitchen needs). Must have good character and a desire for learning more about God. Applications for entering the program are available online. Some pre-training required.

No extra cost for SALT members

PRICING DETAILS

Most camp weeks are $400 per camper but all the camps have optional discounts built in for multi-family or situational hardships to take 10% off of the price per child.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Camp Good News does have some scholarships available for partial or even full coverage of the cost of camp. These are based on need and are offered on a limited basis. Please apply for these scholarships early to have a chance at getting rewarded (available online). Consider also asking your church for help sponsoring your child(ren). Camp can provide a letter of reference to ask for special funds.
